Official Games social events will be even more exciting than ever including:

Saturday 6 October 2007
Opening Ceremony
Adelaide Entertainment Centre
The Games will kick off with a spectacular night of music and entertainment at the Adelaide Entertainment Centre. The night will feature a participant march, official opening and fabulous entertainment by Australia's disco diva Marcia Hines.

Wednesday 10 October 2007
Coopers Midweek "Street Party"
Rundle Street East
One of Adelaide's best dining precincts will provide the backdrop to a night of great music and great food. The street will come alive with bands, street stalls and more.

Saturday 13 October 2007
Closing Ceremony
Elder Park - River Torrens
The Games have teamed up with Tasting Australia to put on a Closing Ceremony like no other. Tasting Australia's Feast for the Senses offers the best of Australia's food and wine. Package this with some of Adelaide's best cover bands and you've got one big party!

Games Ambassadors

The Games are pleased to announce the following Australian sporting identities as Ambassadors for the Games:

Stuart O'Grady
International Cyclist and Olympic Gold Medallist.

Darren Lehmann
Redbacks Captain and former member of the Australian Cricket Team.

Michelle Den Dekker OAM
2007 Talent ID Coach and Mentor for Garville Netball Club, 2005 Australian Masters Games Gold Medallist and former Captain of the Australian Netball Team.

In addition, Dr. Matt Worthley, Cardiologist at Royal Adelaide Hospital, has joined our team of Ambassadors and offers some important advice on how regular physical activity can benefit not only the heart but general health and well being.

"Regular exercise helps prevent heart disease and stroke, type 2 diabetes prostate and breast cancer. It also improves blood pressure, cholesterol levels, sleep and lowers stress."

Volunteer Ambassador

George Kapiniaris
Comedian, RAA ad star and all-round good bloke!

The Australasian Masters Games are delighted to announce George Kapiniaris as Ambassador for the RAA Insurance Volunteer Program. George is a well-loved Australian actor, singer, comedian, host, entertainer and performer and is best known for his roles in the hit sitcom Acropolis Now and hugely popular Wogs out of Work stage show. George has a bigger-than-cult following in South Australia where his popularity has soared after his appearance in a series of comedic commercials for RAA Insurance. George's charisma will be an asset to the RAA Insurance Volunteer Program and we are excited about his involvement as Volunteer Ambassador.

AdelaideNow

The Advertiser and Sunday Mail launched its new website, AdelaideNow, in August 2006. The website is a portal to everything in Adelaide - from the latest news, sport, entertainment, gossip and social pics.

The site features a searchable database of Adelaide events, movies, live entertainment backed by previews and reviews on events in Adelaide on any given week. It has video on breaking news of the day, quirky Adelaide incidents, audio interviews, plus local and international news coverage as it happens every day.

AdelaideNow will cover the Australasian Masters Games in 2007 and will be there to tell you all you want to know about what is happening in Adelaide. Now.

Online Registrations Now Open

The wait is over! Online registrations for the Australasian Masters Games are now open. Participants who have access to the internet are encouraged to register online at www.AustralasianMasters.com

Online registration is the easiest and most secure way to register for the Games and is the preferred method of entry by the majority of our participants. By following the fast and hassle free steps on the Online Registration System you'll be able to create a user account and officially register your team(s), enter as an individual, or even enter your friends and family all at the same time.

Online entry is simple and user friendly. Confirmation of your entry and payment is emailed to you immediately after you complete the registration process. Later on, if you decide you've mastered more events, simply go back online and add them. It's that easy!

Alternatively, the Games Registration Booklet will be accessible for download via the Games website and also available in hardcopy from the Games Office or your local sporting association from the week commencing 19 March 2007.

Must See, Must Do across South Australia

South Australia has myriad experiences to satisfy the traveller wanting to get more out of their holiday. So, if you want to get out of the city for a day or longer, here's some suggestions sure to tempt you.

Swim with dolphins and sea-lions at Baird Bay

Swimming is believing at stunning Baird Bay, one of the few places in the world where you can swim with dolphins and sea-lions. www.bairdbay.com

Be amazed by Kangaroo Island

You'll find seals basking on quiet beaches; koalas munching on gum trees beside the road; echidnas wandering in search of insects; and kangaroos, goannas, wallabies, penguins and birds at just about every turn - no wonder Kangaroo Island is world-famous. Walk among the natural sculptures that are Remarkable Rocks, explore beautiful Kelly Hills Caves - or simply lose yourself among the quiet country lanes. www.tourkangarooisland.com.au or www.sealink.com.au

Wake up to Wilpena Pound

The jewel of the Flinders Ranges, Wilpena Pound is one of Australia's most dramatic sights. Take to the skies on a scenic flight for a 'birds eye view' of the pound, then traverse the natural amphitheatre by foot to experience the diverse natural landscapes and get up close to some local wildlife. There's a good range of accommodation nearby - from bush camping to four-star. www.wilpenapound.com.au

Cruise Australia's largest river

Immerse yourself in one of the world's great river systems, the Murray River. Cruise through ancient history, recent history and natural history. Spend a weekend aboard passenger vessels such as the MV Expedition or the paddle wheeler Murray Princess, or hire your very own houseboat and call the Murray your own. www.murraylands.info and www.riverland.info

Join the party at the Adelaide Central Market

Mingle with thousands of people buying, selling and tasting the best produce of South Australia. Featuring not only fresh fruit and vegetables (most of which are grown within an hour's drive from the market), it also boasts a huge range of meat and fish and an array of gourmet produce. www.adelaide.sa.gov.au/centralmarket

Haselgrove Wines

The Games are proud to announce Haselgrove Wines as the Official Wine of the Games. Haselgrove is a premium wine producer established in 1981 in the heart of the historic McLaren Vale wine region in South Australia.

The current ranges of award-winning Haselgrove Wines are made using a combination of traditional winemaking techniques and the best modern practices to capture the intrinsic character of the grape.

For more information on Haselgrove Wines go to www.haselgrove.com.au

Make sure you check out the Games Registration Booklet or Games website for details on how you can take advantage of the Haselgrove Early Bird mixed dozen special offer.

Coopers

We are again delighted to announce Coopers Brewery as Official Beer Supplier of the Games.

Coopers Brewery has a long, rich history which spans from its' origins in 1862 to the present day. Through the decades the brewery has seen many changes and has grown from strength to strength. As Australia's only remaining family-owned brewery of stature, Coopers today markets its products nationally and internationally - ensuring the Coopers brand is renowned well beyond its South Australian home. For more information about Coopers and its products please visit www.coopers.com.au

Marcia Hines headlines Opening Ceremony

The Australasian Masters Games is excited to announce Australia's undisputed queen of soul, Marcia Hines, as the headline act for the Games Opening Ceremony. Come and shake your groove thing on Saturday 6 October 2007 at the Adelaide Entertainment Centre to classic dance tracks from her album, discothèque.

Marcia is a stage musical star, chart-topper, hit maker, dance floor diva and most recently, the voice of reason on Australian Idol's judging panel.

Hailing from Boston, Massachusetts, Marcia's adopted homeland of Australia has seen her through 4 decades of Top 40 hits, a number one single, the sale of 2 million records worldwide and starring roles in the theatre productions Hair and Jesus Christ Superstar.

Blame it on the boogie at the Adelaide Entertainment Centre this October as the Games kick off with the most disco-tastic tracks ever. This is definitely a night not to be missed!

Community Ambassador Program Takes Off!

The Australasian Masters Games Community Ambassador Program provides a fun and easy way for Masters enthusiasts to further their involvement in the Games, not only by their participation but by utilising their passion to promote the Games within their community.

So far, we are pleased to announce that 19 Community Ambassadors have joined our team:

| | |
|----------------------------|------------------------|
| Ray Brien, TAS | John Mangrum, USA |
| Geoffrey Burke, Guam | Jack Mathieson, NSW |
| Dan Cryster, Guam | Paula Pangrazio, QLD |
| Mary Folland, SA | Siegfried Rocznik, SA |
